Learning outcomes *
- Knowledge of the basic characteristics of music, from the level of competence and performance as well as its didactic application in Primary Education. - Application of the axes of perception-listening, and musical expression, both vocal and instrumental and by body movement, related to the objectives and competences established by the legislation for the Primary Education stage.
Assessment systems *
The evaluation of this subject is regulated by the Official Degree and Master Degree Evaluation Regulations of the University of Extremadura (DOE 212, November 3, 2020). There is a continuous assessment where the student must attend the most of the classes and seminars. The student must to handle 3 – 5 activities depending on the subject content (with a 60% of weight in the evaluation), and a class diary (with a 40% of weight in the evaluation). This will be the evaluation system taking into account that the student attends practically all the face-to-face or online classes of the subject, and show interest and participation in the class. Otherwise the student will take the alternative final global test. There is an alternative final global test for those who do not attend the class or do not handle the activities. Overcoming that test entails passing the subject. The student can choose to take a global final test that evaluates all the contents of the subject. The student will choose the type of evaluation during the first quarter of the course period of the first semester. When a student does not make his/her decision through the procedure established by the faculty, it will be understood that he/she opts for continuous evaluation. Whatever the modality is chosen by the students, it will be guaranteed that they can achieve the maximum grade "Outstanding-10".
